

Braden R. Leck | PARTNER

brady@rogerssheffield.com

Mr. Leck focuses on advising individuals and businesses on real estate and business transactions, estate planning, probate, and trust administration.

He counsels clients with respect to the acquisition, financing, leasing and disposition of residential and commercial real estate, as well as with respect to business entity selection and formation matters, capital transactions, purchase and sale transactions, and a wide variety of commercial contracts. Mr. Leck also routinely assists clients with the preparation of wills, trusts and related estate planning documents, and with the post-death administration of trusts and estates.

Clients rely not only on Mr. Leck's keen intellect and legal skills, but also on his proven business judgment and his ability to remain calm and provide trusted advice when difficult situations arise.

Mr. Leck received his law degree from the University of California at Los Angeles School of Law, with a specialization in business law, and was admitted to the State Bar of California in 1999. While at UCLA, he received the American Jurisprudence Award in property law. Mr. Leck received his bachelor of arts degree from the University of California at Santa Barbara, graduating with honors. While at UCSB, he was a recipient of the prestigious Regents Scholarship.

Prior to joining Rogers, Sheffield & Campbell, LLP, Mr. Leck was a partner at the Santa Barbara law firm of Seed Mackall LLP. Mr. Leck began his legal career in Los Angeles at Latham & Watkins LLP, a highly-respected international firm.
